DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-31, drawn to a filter device configured for being implanted in a blood vessel and having a higher mass density adjacent to the outer wall surface and a lower mass density adjacent to the inner wall surface, with the fiber including a blend of polyethersulfone and poly(ethylene oxide), classified in class 604, subclass 6.04.
 - II. Claims 32-63, drawn to a filter device for carrying out in-vivo plasma separation having a plurality of elongated hollow tubes and a plurality of elongated fibers, with each fiber having a first end and a second end secured to one or more of the hollow tubes with the interior lumen of each fiber communicating with the interior of the one or more hollow tubes, and having four or more mass density zones with each of the zones characterized by a different average nominal pore size, classified in class 604, subclass 6.09.
 - III. Claims 64-66 and 68-73, drawn to a method of improving the structural integrity of an elongated hollow microporous fiber produced by extruding a fluid polymer composition from polymer extrusion machine spinnerette and embedding one or more elongated continuous cohesive filaments in the fiber wall, in which the filament and the inner fluid polymer composition are extended from the spinnerette at substantially the same rate, classified in class 128, subclass 898.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:
3. Inventions I, II, and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation and different effects.
4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and the search required for each Group is not required for the other Groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
5. Claim 1 is generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species of the claimed invention, comprising:

Species A-G: a fiber having a filament including (A) fiberglass, (B) polypropylene, (C) silk, (D) polysulfone, (E) polyethersulfone, (F) polyamide, (G) polyimide as generically disclosed in Claim 1 and exemplified by species of Claims 13 and 26.

6. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.
7. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
8. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
